Tim Steinbis | 📞 (760) 519-4605 | ✉️ steinbis@gmail.com | linkedin.com/in/timsteinbis

.NET Developer

Experienced in building secure, high-performance applications for government, defense, and enterprise clients. Proven ability to transform high-level ideas into comprehensive software solutions.

Qualifications:

- 10+ years of .NET software development experience / C#, SQL.
- 5+ years of experience with ASP.NET, MVC, .NET Core, REST APIs.
- Experience in end-to-end software development, including prototyping and full SDLC execution.
- Experience working with CI/CD pipelines and industry standard repositories.

SIMS Software – Sr. Software Engineer

Carlsbad, CA | 2016 – 2024

- Played a critical role in gathering complex business requirements for secure software products for government and defense compliance driven environments.

- Played a lead role in designing and delivering a Visitor Management Kiosk System used in high-security environments.

- Developed robust RESTful APIs, integrated third-party services, and enhanced existing enterprise applications to support complex compliance needs.

- Mentored junior developers and drove technical quality through best practices and code reviews.

SC3 – Software Engineer

San Diego, CA | 2016

- Delivered secure solutions for Department of the Army websites with strict compliance and accessibility standards.

- Conducted maintenance, enhancements, and security updates on multiple legacy and modern ASP.NET applications.

- Participated in Agile ceremonies and contributed to sprint planning, stand-ups, and retrospectives.

Brandes Investment Partners – Software Engineer

San Diego, CA | 2014 – 2015

- Designed and implemented internal enterprise apps for CRM and data management.

- Refactored complex SQL stored procedures to improve performance and data integrity.

Education

California State University, San Marcos | BA: Human Development, Health Emphasis

Palomar College | AS: CSCI Info Technology, Computer Science